You're looking for a proper Taekwondo Camp during the summer holidays? Are you looking for adequate international training partners? With this offer we're addressing all Taekwondo Athletes from the full contact categories Youth and Seniors. We make sure that you improve yourself and spend an unforgettable time with well-known international high-class competitors and perspective athletes from different nations.

In addition to modern Taekwondo with a focus on your technical skills, varied training and tournament simulations await you with the electronic scoring system from Dae do. We appreciate fair play and team spirit. The health of our participants is of course a top priority.

For professional care in the Camp during your stay, our sports science and pedagogically trained trainer team is at your side around the clock. We see great importance in well and extensive support. We already received confirmations by international top class athletes and coaches.
