4.4 Cadetten A+B Hoge Band Categorie

Every athlete participating in the Cadet A+B class must submit a signed declaration stating that they accept the competition rules, participate at their own risk, and release the organizers from any liability. This declaration must also be signed by the athlete's legal representative. It is only valid if accompanied by a copy of the legal representative's ID (this is to verify their signature). Information on the copy that is not necessary for this purpose must be crossed out or made illegible. This includes, for example, the citizen service number (BSN) and passport photo. For a secure copy, use the Dutch government's Kopie ID app.

Before the cadet participates in competitions in the high-belt category, the fully completed declaration, along with copies of the required IDs, must be submitted to the federation office in a timely manner (no later than one week before the cadet's first competition in the high-belt category) and submitted by email to the federation office for verification. The coach or anyone other than their legal representatives are not authorized to sign this document.

The coach or anyone other than their legal representatives are not authorized to sign this document.

Cadets in Class C/D are NOT permitted to make head contact.

5. Weging

5.1 Regels weging

Players may exceed their weight class by a maximum of 100 grams! For example, if a player is in the -68 weight range, they may exceed their weight class by 100 grams, so 68.1 is the maximum. Players who are overweight can switch for a fee of €10. Weight classes can be combined if there are too few players in a class.

Poules/ompoulen:

Mixed competitions (girls and boys together) are permitted in the youth category. Pools of fewer than 5 participants can be combined with a corresponding weight class (regardless of the number of participants in that corresponding weight class). When combining, only two corresponding original weight classes (see weight class overview) may be combined. Under no circumstances may a pool be formed consisting of three or more original weight classes.

Switching pools is only possible before participating in the official weigh-in.

Cost: €10.00
